State American Legion Names Committee to Back Proposition 1

American Legion State Committee chairman John J. Flynn of Vallejo, chairman of the Legion's Veterans Home and Farm Committee supporting the passage of Proposition One announced the formation of a state-wide general committee of over 1000 members.

Proposition One on the November ballot is the $300 million selfliquidating bond issue to continue the Cal-Vet Home and Farm loan program which enables California veterans to purchase homes and farms.

The program was originated in 1952 and since its inception has not cost the taxpayers of California one cent—all costs including administration are borne by the veteran borrower," Flynn asserted.

TOPIC ANNOUNCED

The Torrance Religious Science Group will meet Sunday evening at 7:30 p.m. at the YMCA building to hear Rev. Ted Romerska talk on the topic "Prayer Is Accepting, Not Begging."

DESPITE OPEN opposition from several groups, Flynn announced the receipt of endorsements from many state-wide groups. 53 of the state's 58 County Board of Supervisors, many of the office's major candidates for public office, and others.

We have received endorsements from the California State Employees Assn., the American Federation of Labor, the California Farm Bureau Federation, Native Sons of the Gold West, both Democratic and Republican State parties, energy building and contractor associations, all veterans organizations, and every local
